IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Seniors' Premium Surcharge: (excluding residents of QC)

The premium rates for individuals age 65 and over take into account that most seniors currently have access to their province's provincial drug program. From age 65 onward, AFBS usually assumes a second payor position. This means that the cost of eligible prescriptions is paid first by your provincial program. Any eligible amount which is not covered by your provincial drug program may be submitted to AFBS.

If you are ineligible for coverage under your provincial drug program, AFBS will provide equivalent benefits. A premium surcharge of 10% is included when AFBS is the first payor.

Individuals Residing in Quebec:

This is a Supplemental Plan in Quebec. Members residing in Quebec must be enrolled in the RAMQ Public Prescription Drug Insurance Plan. RAMQ is your sole prescription drug provider unless you are insured elsewhere. AFBS does not provide prescription drug coverage in Quebec under The Arts & Entertainment Plan®.

Protecting Your Privacy:

Protecting your privacy is of the utmost importance to AFBS. It is fundamental to the way we conduct business. It continues to be our highest priority when dealing with you. AFBS collects personal information about you and your family as required to accurately manage and administer the eligible insurance benefits. In turn, AFBS provides information about you to our insurance partners as indicated in Section 5. These organizations ensure the highest level of confidentiality because of the nature of the services they provide as well as their contractual obligations with AFBS.

Any personal information held by AFBS or any other AFBS insurance partner is kept strictly confidential and is only available to you or your representative, as designated by you.

The AFBS Benefits department is committed to resolving any privacy issue with you as quickly as possible. If there is a privacy or confidentiality issue that is not resolved to your satisfaction, please provide written notice to the Privacy Officer at privacy@afbs.ca.
